

GRAVEYARD OF THE ATLANTIC MUSEUM

The Graveyard of the Atlantic Museum offers a fun opportunity for kids of all ages! While at the museum, you can hunt for artifacts that appear on our downloadable Scavenger Hunt App. Just click on the code here or at the museum and photos of the artifacts you need to find will appear. As you search for the artifacts, you explore the exhibits and learn about the maritime history and culture of the North Carolina Outer Banks. View artifacts and stories on shipwrecks, lifesavers, piracy, war, diving, and fishing, and enjoy the annually changing exhibits in our education room. Everyone who completes the scavenger hunt gets a reward – not only the excitement of learning but a keepsake to remind you of your visit. Check our website to give you access to more opportunities including craft lessons, videos, history essays, hands on activities and a children's newspaper: www.graveyardoftheatlantic.com.

You can access the Scavenger Hunt APP here or at the museum.
